Re: MUR 5111 (Citizens for Greenleaf, et al.)

Dear Mr. Noble:

Greenleaf For Congress, the principal campaign committee for the election of Stewart J. Greenleaf to the U.S. House of Representatives, received a complaint ("Complaint") designated Matter Under Review ("MUR") 5111 by the Federal Election Commission. The Complaint asserted that certain expenditures by Citizens for Greenleaf, Senator Greenleaf's committee for re-election to the Pennsylvania state senate, related to Senator Greenleaf's campaign for federal office. However, to our knowledge, the activities referenced in the complaint related solely to his campaign for state office. In addition, there also have been no improper interactions between Citizens for Greenleaf and Greenleaf For Congress. As a result, we ask the Commission to find no reason to believe that Greenleaf for Congress violated the law and to dismiss this complaint.

Sincerely,

James H. Shacklett, III
Treasurer
Greenleaf For Congress
